Headline:
Generally dry and chilly overnight, scattered showers developing on Wednesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Thicker cloud may bring the odd light shower to the east of Kent overnight, otherwise dry across the region with clear spells. Staying breezy in the east, but a touch of ground frost in the west where winds fall light. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Wednesday:
Mostly dry in the west of the region with some sunny spells. Always cloudier, breezier, and cooler across eastern parts, with a few showers here by afternoon. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Thursday rather cloudy with some showery rain in the east, Friday and Saturday brighter but still the risk of a shower. Chilly north to northeast winds developing for a time.
